Timeless Truths

Acts 13:13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departing from them returned to Jerusalem.

John Mark had just seen Paul confront the sorcerer. Paul told him to stop perverting the right ways of the Lord. The sorcerer was mad blind and needed to be led around by the hand. Surly, this was a confrontational event in the battle with the Devil. It even astonished some people into believing in the doctrine of the Lord. When Paul and his company moved on deeper into the Devil's territory, John Mark was not willing to go. He went back to Jerusalem.

It is easy to stay in the comfort and security of the church walls; to be with brothers and sisters singing the praises of God and getting fed the Word of God, but to go out into enemy territory and confront the Devil and his crowd is a bit more difficult. This is where you find out about your "grit," is it true or not.

Don't turn back. Stay with the company. You are needed in the confrontation. Don't let the Devil divide you from the group.

Because He Is,

Rev. Ron Coale, Pastor
