Timeless Truths

Romans 12:19 Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

When people make us really angry, sometimes we have this overwhelming desire to get even. We know that we should not do it, but still we have those feelings and the tendency is to do some harm to them to get satisfaction.

Not only that, sometimes we even talk about someone whom we didn't allow to "walk all over" us. We are proud of the fact that we "told them off." This is a verbal vengeance. Words can be really hurtful. There is a false sense of satisfaction that comes from "putting someone in their place."

The Lord admonishes us to not seek to avenge ourselves. All vengeance belongs to the Lord and there are a lot of things that He does not deem as serious as we do. How do we suppress those feelings that come up in our heart urging us to avenge ourselves? Well, we simply don't give place to acting on the anger we feel. It is okay to feel anger, but we should not act upon it. It is a choice we have. We can choose to just "let it go." It's our choice.
