SEPTEMBER/OCTOBER 2020

Greetings from the big city of Guadalajara. Since Thanksgiving is less than a month away, I would like to mention some things we are thankful for these days. I thank god for a purpose to live and work no matter what battles we face daily; and we owe that to our salvation in Christ Jesus. It is a privilege to work in the fields for our Saviour and not be alone in doing it. Jonathan Ávalos has been a blessing with all he does in the work. We thank the Lord for souls saved and the unlimited opportunities to evangelize the gospel all over the city. Grateful to the Lord for the starting of a Spanish internet radio station (www.radiocristianaluchafinal.com) earlier this year with others who have a burden to broadcast the greatest news ever heard.

Thankful also for our Pastor and home church in Alabama for their continued investment in what we do here. They were willing to help with the advancement in the remodeling of the house in Zapopan where we plan to start our church plant. We pray that sometime in the beginning of the new year 2021 we will be able to tell folks we have a meeting place. Meanwhile, we have this place to store all the Spanish Bibles, Roman booklets, and other gospel literature God has provided this year through the efforts of our home church, Victory Baptist Press, and other missionaries here in Mexico. Tools ready to be put into the hands of the lost and saved of our city.

We are thankful for the Lord keeping us healthy and safe during these past several months. We lost support from some churches due to the financial strain of the times that churches are experiencing; we praise the Lord for each one of them and their part in our ministry. We thank God for every one of you who support us financially and with prayers. Thankful for a God who watches over us in so many ways. Thank God for the U.S.A.; may He still bless her as His children humble themselves and seek His power in living holy and continuing to evangelize the world.

Finally, I am thankful for the family the Lord has given me; not just my wife and children, but the church family we have all over. Friends who keep in touch, brethren who pray for us, and those that God has in our lives to minister to us through preaching, teaching, and much needed counseling and advice. Looking forward to the day that we all sit down together with Thanksgiving up in heaven. That will be a wonderful time! Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

In His Service,

Michael & Carol Meyer (I Peter 4:10-11)
